

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

United States of America

v.

John Doe,

Defendant.

Sealed

Order to Wheel Out Sealed Case

Docket No. 17 Cr. 162

Upon the application of the United States by Joon H. Kim, Acting United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, Assistant United States Attorney Jessica Lonerga, of counsel, the Court hereby finds that:

At the time of its return, the indictment in this matter was ordered, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 6(e)(4), to be kept secret until the defendant is in custody or has been released pending trial. As a result this case has not yet been assigned to a United States District Judge. See Rule 6 of the Local Rules for the Division of Business Among District Judges. The defendant is currently in state custody and will be arrested on or about March 23, 2017, following which he will be arraigned on the indictment. However, for the reasons set forth in the United States v. John Doe, Docket No. 17 Cr. 162, Government's Application, this case should remain sealed until it can be acted upon by the District Judge to whom it will be assigned. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that this case be "wheeled out" and assigned to a United States District Judge without being unsealed, under the name United States v. John Doe, Docket No. 17 Cr. 162, for such further proceedings as that Judge may direct; and it is further ORDERED that this Order and the Application upon which it was made be and remain sealed pending further order of the Court.
